The online pharmacy is a relatively new way to deliver health care and mental health care to Americans. Although an online pharmacy sometimes known as a FedEx pharmacy because they use overnight delivery isnt a substitute for diagnoses or prescriptions from a mental health professional, it can be a way to have a prescription filled discretely. This can be especially helpful to men, who seek treatment for depression much more infrequently than women. An online pharmacy can also be helpful for those who have a difficult time getting out of the house, or for those who are running out of their current prescriptions and need a next day refill.
